On the annual agreement to measure out to the municipality a moiety of the net annual revenue which consisted of (1) house tax
(2) shop tax
(3) loom tax
(4) cart tax
(5) oil mill tax.

Sravanabelagola was converted into a union with effect from 1st July 1904 along with some other municipalities. As the levy of loom tax has since been abolished and as in a union house tax includes shop tax, the only items of revenue levied therein are (1) house tax (2) cart tax (3) oil mill tax. The first is credited to the Funds while the remaining moiety of the annual Funds in the case of Sravanabelagola union a moiety of the revenue from house tax cart tax & oil mill tax is credited to
